

Hebden is situated on the B6265 between Pateley Bridge and Grassington.

Jerry and Ben's Cottages are in the hamlet of Hole Bottom, half a mile North of the village at the end of a quiet single track road.

Our location means that you can enjoy a truly peaceful holiday and enjoy many walks straight from your cottage door. Hebden, with its excellent pub and small shop is an easy walk away. The large village of Grassington is 2 miles away and the popular market town of Skipton is 10 miles away.

From A1: North of Wetherby turn left onto A59. In Knaresborough turn left and then immediately right onto B6165 Pateley Bridge road. Continue to Pateley Bridge to join B6265 over Greenhow Hill to Hebden. In Hebden turn right at the crossroads in the village and continue up the single track road for half a mile.

From M6/M1: You will need to join the A59 and follow it around the north of Skipton. Join the B6265 (signed Grassington) until in Threshfield turn right at sign for Grassington and continue through this village to Hebden, In Hebden turn left at the crossroads after The Clarendon Pub, Continue up the single track road for half a mile.

Follow the single track road (through 2 gates which are usually open) and climb a steep hill to reach the cottages. Follow the road round to the left to use the carpark. Mrs Hoole's house is set down from the road opposite the carpark.
